/ Reading one day / in Your Word,

In the / boat were the dis- / ciples, / fighting wind and / wave; (Mark 6:48)

You were a- / bout / to pass them / by. /// //// (Mark 6:48)

M41, 1:20: Verse 2:

/ Lord, I know You / told them _to / go to the other / side, (Matthew 14:22)

And / since they knew the / will of God,

they / could have calmed the / storm. (Mark 6:51–52)

But / sometimes, it's so / easy, Lord, when / trials of any / form / Tempt us to take our / eyes away from / what You've called us / to,

Re- / mind us to look not / at the storm, (Matthew 14:3–31)

but to / keep our eyes / _on / You! /// ////

/ Lord, do not / pass me by, I / want to do Your / will!

I / want to keep my / eyes on You / faithfully un- / til (Hebrews 12:2)

I / finish well the / works that You've or- / dained for me to / do, (Ephesians 2:10)

And I / hear You say, “Well / done, my child” (Matthew 25:21)

A / man began to / walk with them
