M1, 0:00: Intro

M13, 0:46: Verse 1:

I got / saved many years ago, been / warming the pew ever since,
I / know I should try to be like the Lord, (II Corinthians 3:18)
but I / guess I'm hard to convince.

My / spiritual life is boring, there's / no exciting news,
I guess I / got the hear-it-but-don't-ever-do-it, (Matthew 7:24–27, James 1:22–25)
/ Laodicean Lukewarm / Blues. / (Revelation 3:14–22)

M23, 1:23: Verse 2:

I / go to church on Sunday, I / work throughout the week,
I / see that people need the Lord, (Mark 2:17) but I'm / too afraid to speak.
Their / lives are in a shambles, I'd / hate to be in their shoes, but I got the / hear-it-but-don't-ever-do-it, (Matthew 7:24–27, James 1:22–25)
Laodi- / cean Lukewarm / Blues. / (Revelation 3:14–22)

M33, 2:00: Interlude 1

M49, 2:59: Verse 3:

At / work, I met some people, but / they were kinda strange,
They / talked about how Jesus came / in and made a change: (II Cor. 3:18)
Their / lives were far from boring, and / radical their views—
But the / way they lived their lives, there's not a / trace of the Lukewarm / Blues! /

M59, 3:36: Verse 4:

They / saw that I was wanting some ex- / citement in my life; (I Peter 1:8)
They / said the Holy Spirit would / give me power I've (Acts 1:8)
/ _Never imagined, to / fight and never lose, (Luke 10:19)
'Cause His / wonder-working Presence puts an / end to the Lukewarm / Blues! /

M69, 4:13: Interlude 2

M85, 5:12: Verse 5:

Well, the / rest, they say, is history: the / power of the Lord
Im- / parted kindred spirits—we're / now in one accord, (Philippians 2:2)
We're / healing people's bodies and / helping them to choose (Matt 10:7-8)
The / most exciting thing, which is to / slam down the Lukewarm / Blues! /

M95, 5:49: Verse 6:

You see, / healing is the dinner bell that / calls them to get saved,
And / people see that Jesus is the / One they've always craved—
The / Fairest of Ten Thousand, (Song of Solomon 5:10)
Who / loves them through and through, (1 John 3:1)
And they / never again have to settle / __ for the Lukewarm / Blues! /
