M1, 0:00: Intro (8M)

M9, 0:24: Verse 1:

/ _Lord, I am / hungry for you, / _show yourself to / me!
I want to / gaze upon the beauty of / holiness— / _Jesus, let me / see!
As the / deer pants for the / water brooks, my / soul pants after / Thee.
My whole / being thirsts for the / living God—
/ “Come, Lord!” is my / plea. /

M26, 1:15: Chorus 1:

I / read your word and I / meditate on what You’ve / done in years gone / by,
Then my / spirit cries out, “Lord, / let me do it again!
Re- / spond to the people’s / cry!”
But / even as I say it, I / realize fulfillment’s / not in doing works like / these;
It is / only when I’m in your / Presence, Lord,
so / come, Holy Spirit, / please! ///

M45, 2:12: Verse 2:

Then I / hear the still, small / voice of the / Lover of my / soul:
“Your ful- / fillment, child, is / here with Me,
and in / Me and you are made / whole.
/ You delight in My / Presence, child, and / I delight in / yours;
When we are / one in intimate / fellowship,
My / life through your life / pours.” /

M62, 3:03: Chorus 2:

Oh, the / peace I have when I / hear His voice,
the ac- / ceptance that I / feel,
His / love for me is uncon- / ditional—so / deep and profoundly / real!
The / sweetness of this / God of mine—
nothing / else could / compare—
The in- / tensivity of His / burning love is almost / more than I can / bear! ///

M81, 4:00: Verse 3:

So / after a glorious e- / ternity that's / really not that / long,
Jesus / sends me out to / share His love—
in His / Presence, I am made / strong.
The more / time I spend in Your / Presence, Lord,
the more / fruit I can / bear,
But I'll / always be hungry for Your / Presence;
there's nothing / better than living / there. /

M98, 4:51: Chorus 3:

/ I go out and I / love the lost, heal the / sick, and feed the / poor—
The / time I spend in Your / Presence, Lord, always / makes me hungry for / more!
So / thank you, Lord, for / loving me, and / letting me hear Your / voice,
Re- / ward my hunger with more / hunger for You;
You are / all my greatest / joys!
