M1, 0:00: Intro:

M5, 0:09: Verse 1:

/ _I woke up this / morning with that / same old ache in my / soul—
/ _I want to see the / glory of the Lord, / _makin’ more people / whole.
I’ve / seen folks saved, de- / livered, and healed,
and I’m / grateful for every / one,
But I / know there’s more—there’s / _so much more—
/ _that’s still to be / done! /

M22, 0:46: Verse 2:

/ _I look at the / seeds I’ve sown, and I / see they’re growing o- / kay,
But there’s / not enough fruit to / even approach
the / price that Jesus / paid.
I / listen to prophetic / weathermen, for their / forecasts day by / day,
And at / last I’m hearing that a / glory storm is / finally on its / way!

M39, 1:23: Chorus 1:

/ _Yes, Lord, send the / glory storm! (Ezekiel 1:4)
We’ve been / dry for way too / long!
/ _Show Your power up- / on the earth
like the / sun coming up at / dawn! (Proverbs 4:18)
/ _Yes, Lord, send the / glory storm!
We need to / see Your love and / power;
/ Teach us once more the / fear of the Lord,
as You / rise up in this / hour!

M56, 2:00: Interlude 1:

Send the Glory Storm (page 2 of 2)

M64, 2:17: Verse 3:

The / heavens are open and the / glory's here;
the / presence of the Lord is / strong.
/ _The Spirit of God is / moving in power,
and He's in- / viting us to come a- / long.
His / people are feeling His / holiness;
they / humble themselves and re- / pent,
For the / years of wasted / emptiness so / many of us have / spent.

M81, 2:54: Verse 4:

But / God is merciful and / He's restored all the / years the locusts con- / sumed.
Once a- / gain our prayers waft / heavenward
like rich and sweet per- / fume.
The / Lord is moving on / His own terms;
we wouldn't / have it any other / way,
We're / moving from a time of / darkest night into / bright and glorious / day! / (Proverbs 4:18, Romans 13:12)

M98, 3:31: Chorus 2:

/ _Yes, Lord, send the / glory storm;
we've been / dry for way too / long.
/ _Show Your power up- / on the earth
like the / sun coming up at / dawn!
/ _Yes, Lord, send the / glory storm,
we need to / see Your love and / power;
/ Teach us once more the / fear of the Lord,
as You / rise up in this / hour!

M115, 4:09: Interlude 2

M123, 4:26: Chorus 3 (same as Chorus 2)
